

HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVES TRAINING

5 DAY COURSE

Appropriate for those who have been elected or appointed as HSRs by their colleagues or for further career growth.

$950 + GST

CTF ELIGIBLE – YOU PAY $380*
(CONDITIONS APPLY)

Click here to fill out Mine Training Australia's CTF form.

For more information about Construction Training Fund and eligibility criteria, please visit Construction Training Fund \(CTF\).

08 9221 1803

hello@minetrainingaustralia.edu.au

46 Edward Street
Osborne Park WA 6019

www.minetrainingaustralia.edu.au

RTO: 51586

COURSE OVERVIEW

The Health and Safety Representative (HSR) training covers a range of topics, including an overview of health and safety legislation and regulations, hazard identification and risk assessment, incident investigation and reporting, and communication and consultation skills.

DELIVERY

Face to Face at Mine Training Australia Facilities in Osborne Park or On-site with you.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

A moderate English language, literacy and numeracy skill is required. Participants must be over eighteen (18) years of age.

DATES (7:30AM - 3:00PM)

8th - 12th April 2024

TBC further dates in 2024 - Please enquire for details